"Third Lieutenant" Humphries At Head Of Tobacco Campaign

Mrs. Otho W. Humphries, wife of Lieut. Humphries, Company M, 167th Infantry, Rainbow Division, now in France, has succeeded Mrs. Raymond Brown, wife of Lieut. Brown, as one of the Morgan county chairmen for the tobacco fund campaign. Mrs. Humphries accepted the appointment owing to the fact that Mrs. Brown will be out of the city during the summer. She will be associated with Miss Ruby Jones, sister of Lieut. Gorman Jones, her co-worker.

The new chairman is one of the few women in the state with a military title—that of "third lieutenant." This is honorary and was conferred upon her by her husband's company in recognition of her unusual interest in the welfare of the men. She has personally sent them large quantities of smoking tobacco and cigarettes, and in addition writes the company a letter at least once a week, which is posted upon the bulletin board and read by every one of the men.

The local public having become somewhat lethargic in its response to appeals for the tobacco fund, a new drive is to be made, with the hope of securing more generous contributions. Individuals are to be asked to drop as much as ten cents a week, or perhaps 25 cents a week, in the tobacco fund boxes that are conveniently placed in Albany and Decatur stores. The money received is forwarded to Mrs. William P. Screws, wife of the commanding officer of the "Fighting Fourth" Alabama who by special arrangement will dispatch the "weed" to Europe. Under present regulations tobacco can no longer be sent by individuals.

"Every letter I get from the front the boys are clamoring for tobacco," stated "Lieutenant" Humphries today. "If the public only knew how much the men appreciated the tobacco, and how much more they appreciated the remembrance, they would give gladly." Then she appealed to the Daily to tell them all about it.

Morgan County Youths Will Register Tomorrow

The registration of Morgan county youths becoming 21 since June 5 of last year will take place tomorrow. The registration will be held in the building formerly occupied by the Cook Furniture Company, Se. 3rd avenue, Albany, and the members of the local board, aided by volunteers, will be in charge. The hours are from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

It is estimated today that 300 young men in this county would be required to register.

NELSON MURDERED IS JURY FINDING; WARD IS ARRESTED AND NOW IN JAIL

MAN HAD BEEN SHOT AND KILLED THREE-QUARTERS OF A MILE FROM PLACE WHERE THE BODY WAS FOUND.

MONEY AND PISTOL GONE

LIFELESS FIGURE WAS SWOLLEN AND DISTORTED. NECK HAD BEEN PULLED FROM SOCKET.

Following the sensational finding of the decomposed body of "Red" Nelson, at a secluded spot 15 miles east of Hartselle, Lum Ward, a white man, has been arrested and placed in the Madison county jail on the charge of murder.

The coroner's jury which was summoned by Coroner Walter Chenault held an exhaustive inquiry into the death of Nelson yesterday and returned the verdict that he was murdered by persons unknown.

The body of the man presented a gruesome spectacle when it was found. Badly decomposed, swollen and distorted, the neck pulled entirely from the socket, the lifeless figure was buried on the spot where it had lain since Sunday, May 26, the date on which it is thought that the man met his horrible end.

A bullet hole through Mr. Nelson's chest told the story of his death. He had been shot down and killed, so the coroner's jury believes, at a spot some three-quarters of a mile from the place where the body was discovered. From that point the lifeless figure has been carried or dragged to a high bluff and thrown over onto the rocks below.

At the time of his disappearance Mr. Nelson had on his person a pistol and scabbard, a pocketbook, pipe and tobacco pouch. The pocketbook had been emptied and the revolver removed after he was killed.

Report of Jury.

The report of the coroner's jury follows: "We, the jury empaneled to inquire into the death of the party in question, beg leave to make the following report: That the body found was that of 'Red' Nelson and that he came to his death by gunshot wounds at the hands of parties to this jury not certainly and definitely known."

GERMANS ARE STOPPED IN PARIS DRIVE

Another American Force Engages Enemy In Sector Of Neuilly

(International News Service.)
PARIS, JUNE 4.—AMERICAN REINFORCEMENTS HAVE REACHED THE AISNE-MARNE BATTLE FRONT AND HAVE TAKEN THEIR PLACE UPON THE MOST VITAL PART OF THE LINE NORTH AND SOUTH OF THE MARNE RIVER WHERE THE GERMAN HORDES HAVE BEEN MAKING THE GREATEST EFFORT TO BREAK THROUGH IN THE DIRECTION OF PARIS.

AMERICANS FIGHTING WITH GEN. FOCH'S RESERVE ARMY ATTACKED GERMAN DETACHMENTS THAT FORCED THE CROSSING OF THE MARNE IN THE SECTOR OF JAULGONNE, 12 MILES EAST OF CHATEAU-THIERY, THROWING THEM BACK ACROSS THE RIVER. THE GERMANS SUFFERED SEVERELY IN THE FIGHTING AND LOST SOME HUNDREDS OF PRISONERS.

AFTER THE BOCHES HAD BEEN BEATEN BACK TO THE NORTHERN SIDE OF THE STREAM THE FRENCH-AMERICAN FORCES DESTROYED THEIR PONTOON BRIDGES.

THE AMERICANS WERE ALSO ENGAGED WITH THE GERMANS NORTH OF THE MARNE IN THE SECTOR OF NEUILLY. THE GERMANS WERE MAKING STRONG EFFORTS TO EXTEND THEIR LINES IN THAT SECTOR BUT WERE THRUST BACK BY A STRONG COUNTER-ASSAULT. THE AMERICANS ACQUITTED THEMSELVES GALLANTLY.

(NOTE: EVIDENTLY THE AMERICAN FORCES UPON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT ARE LARGE, AS THE TWO ZONES IN WHICH THEY ARE ENGAGED WITH THE GERMANS ARE FAR APART.)

NEWS OF THE AMERICAN PARTICIPATION IN THE BATTLE WAS GIVEN OUT BY THE FRENCH WAR OFFICE TODAY. THE BATTLE HAS CONTINUED VIOLENTLY ON THE WESTERN BANK OF THE SALIENT AND THE GERMANS HAVE MADE SLIGHT GAINS NORTH AND SOUTH OF THE ORCQ RIVER, BETWEEN SOISSON AND RHEIMS. THEY CAPTURED PERNANT BUT LOST HEAVILY IN DOING SO, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID. MOSLOY, NEUILLY, TO REY AND BOURESCHES, NORTH OF THE MARNE, CHANGED HANDS TIME AND AGAIN IN BITTER FIGHTING.

(International News Service.)
Paris, June 4.—German airmen made another effort to attack this last night. The alarm was sounded shortly before 11 o'clock.

(International News Service.)
London, June 4.—German artillery has been active in the sectors Albert and Feres, the British war office announced today.

(International News Service.)
Paris, June 4.—The Germans have again been balked in their effort to sweep on Paris. All of the Crown Prince's attempts to extend gains on the Aisne-Marne battlefield in the past 48 hours have been frustrated and at a number of points the French have driven forward, capturing highly important ground.

There has been no abatement in the intensity of the battle, however. South of Soissons especially has there been desperate fighting. Large numbers of wounded soldiers are arriving at Paris, many of them victims of gas.

So far the Germans have been unable to gain any more ground any point on the 70-mile front.

AMERICANS ARE AIDING FRENCH TO GET FLYERS.

(International News Service.)
With the American Army on the French Battle Front, June 3.—(Noon) The Americans for the first time are helping the French operate anti-aircraft batteries nightly against German aviators in the villages behind the lines.

FOUR HOSTILE PLANES BROUGHT DOWN IN BALKANS

THE HUN EFFORT TO FRIGHTEN AMERICA.

The sending of two super-submarines by the German admiral into American waters may be classed with the long-range bombardment of Paris and the continual air raids against London. These are merely moves for moral effect, bold efforts to throw a scare into the allied peoples, a beating of tom toms to set the natives talking about the prowess of the "terrible Huns." From the military standpoint such moves are without significance. Psychologically they have also failed, for the stout hearted Parisians go placidly about their business despite the fact that a church occasionally is toppled over; the phlegmatic British proceed as if the aerial demonstrations were merely for their entertainment, while the Americans grit their teeth and vow a more deadly vengeance.

The story of the deprivations of the two undersea pirates operating in the Atlantic, as told by the dispatches is not an alarming one. Probably a few vessels of some military value have been destroyed, but the majority of the ships that were scuttled were mere canoes, tiny coastwise craft that even such a hardy mariner as Christopher Columbus would have not dared to steer out into the broad expanses of the ocean. The American shipyards are turning out daily sufficient tonnage to replace the losses that have thus far resulted within a week.

The visiting marauders will not cause the withdrawal of any of the warships flying the Stars and Stripes now in European waters. The navy has plenty of destroyers on this side to take care of the prowling visitors. Secretary Daniels has made this plain and his words must have fallen with a resounding thud on the ears of the Von Tirpitz who planned the latest dash across the brine. The Hun is to have no solace. He is to be fought to a finish, on land and sea, and there will be no let up until the Lusitania is avenged and the conquering hosts of the allied armies march proudly through the streets of Berlin.

One fact in connection with the submarine raid is that it suggests the possibility that a German U-boat base has been established somewhere on the American coast—to the south. This need not necessarily be true, as the vessels were of the largest known type of underwater boats and no doubt made no arrangements for the return trip. The number of torpedoes which they carried were limited and they will not have the hardihood to attack vessels of real proportions with cannon which they carry fore and aft.

For boldness and audacity the invasion of the Atlantic is worthy of note. It will fall, however, to weaken the determination of the United States to prosecute the war to a final finish.

THE HABIT OF SAVING TOBACCO MONEY.

It is so strong, even with the determination, that it should be the duty of every person to cultivate a habitable variety. The tobacco habit is that lasts the average man a time. The habit of giving to the tobacco fund for the Fourth Alabama regiment, now at the front in France, is that should, if formed, at survive the war.

Propose every user of the weed is truly patriotic should make custom to drop ten cents of five cents into one of the tobacco boxes posted about the doing this at least once a day. Or, to be thoroughly generous, of buying just the same numismatic Havannas as at present should omit a smoke or two occasionally and send the price of it "boys" over there. How much the giver would receive from nation, and how glad it would be the recipient to know that his American smokes were coming from the folks back home.

Is the only Morgan county now in the trenches. These gallant veterans of the Mexican campaign will be in the thick of the fighting soon. Their names may appear in the next casualty list. Why not get the habit of making things pleasant for them. Try slipping a coin into the box!

God In War

At the Sunday evening service of the Central Baptist church a season of special prayer was observed in behalf of our country during this crisis. The pastor emphasized the great need of this hour, and said:

"We have prayed much for our soldiers, but not too much. We have prayed for our president, and he deserves our prayers. We have prayed often for our allies, but not too often. However, it seems to me that the greatest need is prayer for ourselves."

"Much has been said of God's part in war. Some have even questioned whether God takes any part in it at all. Others act as though He did not. Let me read you out of His word to show that He has had to do with wars and victories in other ages. (Dt. 1:20-31; 3:21-22; Josh. 1:5-7; Judges 5:20-21; I Sam. 17:45-49; II Sam. 5:22-25; Jer. 45:14-15; Amos 5:7-9.) From these passages we see that God did have a part in wars in the past. But we are assured that He is the same yesterday, today and forever. Therefore, it is reasonable to suppose that when there are wars today in which He should have a hand that He will do so."

"Is this war such that we might expect Him to intervene? Certainly we cannot see how He would help Germany, when we consider the things for which she is contending and her spirit in contending for them."

Here extracts were read showing the causes leading up to the war—others from the German war code and this recent deliverance of a German preacher: "Anyone who cannot bring himself to approve from the bottom of his heart the sinking of the Lusitania, who cannot conquer his sense of the monstrous cruelty to countless perfectly innocent victims and give himself up to honest joy at this victorious exploit of German defensive power—such a one we deem no true German."

"We know God could not contend for such principles as these. But we need to seriously consider whether we could expect support from Him if we can, we may be confident that in His own way He will bring about the triumph of righteousness in the earth. Temporary defeats should not shake our confidence. The road to victory has always lain through places of peril. Before Israel could leave Egyptian bondage behind, the Red Sea had to be crossed. In order to enter the land of promise the Jordan must be passed. Even Jesus must go through Gethsemane and up to Golgotha before He could triumph over death, hell and the grave. Our own colonies had to witness the winter at Valley Forge before the tones of the Liberty Bell could cause them to shout for joy. The present defeats may be our Red Sea, our Jordan crossing, our Valley Forge, our Gethsemane and Golgotha. If God be for us victory is sure in the end."

"Another question—Are we such people that we could expect God to fight for us? I must confess that I often hang my head in shame when I look upon our American citizens in such a crisis as this. During the last few weeks I have visited two of our largest southern cities. Did I see any signs there that our people realize we are in the world's greatest war and that we need God now? Except for a few flags flying and the presence of an occasional soldier, things were very much as before. People are seeking a good time, filling the pleasure resorts, running after fashion, grasping in greed, acting as though nothing were the matter with the world, and that nothing matters except the fullest indulgence of selfish desires. And our own people are the same. Sometimes I can but wonder if the people of our town know we are engaged in a war. Did they know that May 30th was set apart as a day for prayer and supplication to God? If they knew it they cared little for it. It is said that some churches did not hold services as requested. And those that did hold services had comparatively very few to attend. Our people seem to care very little whether God be for us or not. We can be sure He will not force Himself upon us. During the visit of some French officers to one of our cities a ball was given in their honor (Think of it!). Out of courtesy they attended but took no part. A young lady approached one of the officers and asked him to dance. His reply was: 'You must excuse me; French soldiers cannot afford to dance while their country is oppressed and over-run by her enemies.' But American is dancing on her way, as though humanity's heart were not bleeding white. Merchants are still complaining whenever a government regulation interferes with their profits. Women are wishing to hold back their sons, as though the hopes of humanity were not at stake. Oh, for the voice of some prophet to ring out in our poor land and call our people to prayer and consecration."

"It may take days darker than any we have seen for our people to get where God can afford to give us the victory. It may be necessary for a fleet of submarines to shell some of our ports, or for Zeppelins to drop bombs upon our sleeping cities. Shall we make such things necessary? May we awake to the fact that we are at war and to our need of God. May we put ourselves where He can afford to stand with us and fight for us. Our cause is righteous. Oh, that there were more righteous people to contend for it. Then would the victory come right speedily. Shall not we who are here prostrate ourselves before Jehovah and plead with Him for our people—that they may realize their need for Him and be willing to have Him fight for us?"

MEET TONIGHT.

Decatur Encampment No. 26, I. O. O. F., will meet at their hall tonight for the purpose of conferring the Royal Purple Degree. Grand Patriarch L. N. Buell, of Cullman, will be present and deliver an address. All encampment members are urged to be present.

Voice Of The People

Editor Albany-Decatur Daily:

As it is rumored that I am not in line with the Red Cross and its work for war relief and support of our soldiers on the firing line, I wish to state that I have always been liberal to the up-building of all the churches and schools in Hartselle, and to any distressed person. Now I want to say that I was called upon last week by a committee while I was in the field at work. I left a mule hitched to a harrow, and I only had 50 cents with me and I gave it to them, and had to go back to my mule at once, for fear it would run away. The 50 cents was sent back to me. If I had had any more money with me I would have given as much as $5.00. I do not think that the money should have been returned, as I gave it to the Red Cross.

Now I want to say that I am giving old Billy Kaiser hell between the hoe and plow handles to support our soldier boys, who are giving their lives for our liberty. I previously gave to the Red Cross and expect to give more. We have to sustain our boys on the battle field.

To The Voters Of Morgan County Ala.

In announcing my candidacy for the sheriff's office of Morgan county I do so fully aware of the responsibility attached to, and the importance of, the high office I am seeking at your hands. In this hour of the national crisis and at the time when the world is engaged in a death struggle for democracy, and when nation, states and counties are looking for men who are best fitted for the positions to be filled, I feel that I should submit to you my candidacy upon the sole question of my competency to serve you in this official capacity. My platform is, first and last, to do my full duty under my oath as I did when I was deputy sheriff, of which I refer you to the public records of Morgan county, and also to the records of Esquires James W. Jagers, H. Stewart, John W. Thompson, B. F. Callaway and W. B. Lindsey of Hartselle, Ala., and to Esquires W. A. Culver and R. L. Henderson of Somerville, Ala., while an official of Beat No. 10 in Morgan county. Now, it will be impossible for me to make a thorough canvass of the county. As you may know, I am engaged in farming and must finish my crop that I have planted. Therefore, I may not be able to see all the voters, but I earnestly beg my friends throughout Morgan county to help me in this campaign.

Respectfully your friend,
WHITTEN J. SPARKMAN.

A FIGHTING PARSON.

The Rev. E. C. Palmer, a Methodist Episcopal preacher of Norwood, Park, Chicago, has resigned his pastorate, waived all exemptions, and is on his way to a training camp to serve in the army as a private soldier.

"The best way I can serve the Lord," he said, "is to help beat the Hun."

Which is the declaration of a religious principle worthy the prayerful consideration of the "church militant" everywhere. It's a good time to sing the old Methodist hymn:

Shall I be carried to the skies,
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fight to win the prize
And sail through bloody seas?

THORNTON'S STORE IS BURGLARIZED

The police are today searching for thieves who broke into the jewelry store of J. W. Thornton on Second avenue last night between 9 and 10 o'clock and took about $100 worth of Ingersoll watches. The thieves gained access to the building through the rear door by taking the glass out of the door and reaching in and unlocking the bar which was across the door. It was then an easy matter to get what they wanted. The desk of Mr. Thornton was then forced open and all the drawers rifled. They then proceeded to the front of the store and began to gather up the jewelry. Had it not been for the timely arrival of O. Stoddard, who is connected with the store, it is probable that the thieves would have made a much larger haul. The thieves left through the back door as Mr. Stoddard came in the front.

Mr. Thornton carried no burglary insurance.

THOUGHT.

Be sure to save these words, for they will be used at the next community sing.

MINE EYES HAVE SEEN THE GLORY OF THE COMING OF THE LORD.

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord; He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored; He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible, swift sword; His truth is marching on.

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps; They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps; I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps; His day is marching on.

He hath sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat; He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat. Ah, be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be jubilant, my feet! Our God is marching on.

NOT CALCULATED TO CHEER

Invitation to Prospective Soldiers to Purchase Cemetery Lots Criticized as in Poor Taste.

Down in south Jersey they are wide awake. The hour of the Jersey clocks had not gone twice around the dial after 300 newly drafted men in a certain city had been called for physical examination when the postman brought to each of them an invitation to buy a cemetery lot. The invitation read as follows:

"Which is the better time to consider a matter of this character? Now, when there is ample time for calm, deliberate selection, or later, perhaps when there is a necessity? Experience has proved the former the better course; there is a satisfaction in owning an unused plot, and in knowing you have relieved others of a responsibility."

There are possibilities for the humorist in this, if anyone feels like getting fun out of it. Probably it does not seem funny to the young men about to be taken from their work and their wonted ways of daily living to go into the trenches.

The clerk of the county is going to investigate the manner in which the new lot was sold, and it may not be funny then for the people who sent out these cheerful invitations.

Somebody ought to investigate, while investigation is in order, the psychology of these Jersey geniuses.—New York Tribune.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."

A monster is slowly raising its head throughout this country which, unless beaten down immediately, will become the most dangerous enemy that the cause of civilization has yet been called upon to face. This evil that threatens is to be found in the desire for peace at whatever cost. It is the old "peace at any price" canker raised to the Nth power.

It is easy to dispose of this, as yet futile but steadily increasing, desire for peace by pinning to it the label of German propaganda. But this will not suffice.

That the world is war weary is only too true. France and England have had this blood sickness on the part of their people to contend with for a long time. Its effect on Russia has been demonstrated.

We, in America, have but commenced our share of suffering and sacrifice. If this revulsion of feeling is allowed to spread before the road is half traveled there can be no doubt as to our destination. Open hostility to England, frank sympathy with Germany, "conscientious" or other objections to war, are as nothing in their effect upon our part in the struggle and the destiny of the world—which now admittedly rests upon our shoulders—compared to this desire for the war's ending simply that peace may reign. Peace today, with Germany undefeated, would be a living menace to America as a nation and to every man, woman and child who wish to continue to be known as Americans.

LOOKING AHEAD.

In the minds of the citizens of a democracy the idea that service is due to the government from every one must be firmly implanted or the enfranchised cease to be representative of such a government.

The selective draft answers the purpose of this service, from a military standpoint, during the war we are at present engaged in, but largely because of the fact that we have time to prepare while our allies combat the enemy. We must look to the future and the possibilities of a war declared upon us when we will have no ally. Should this occur selective conscription would be of no avail. Accepting the fact that the citizen of a democracy owes his service to the government, is it not logical that we should organize this service, which shall be trained and equipped for an emergency and able to act immediately as a perfect machine when the necessity arises? Few citizens but believe that universal military training is absolutely necessary to the future safety of this country and that this system should be adopted by the government at the first opportune moment.

The speeding up of our plans to win this war should in no way be interfered with, and future policies must be held in check that they may not interfere with the winning of this war. But when our legislators feel that the speeding up of the war is accomplished a bill should be passed creating a system of universal military training and service which will amply provide for our country's defense in the future, thereby assuring us against the disaster of an attack which would find us unprepared and completely at the mercy of an organized foe.

Our Job Department is equipped to take care of anything you may need in the commercial printing line. Let us have your order.

Canadian Soldiers Cheerfully Risked Their Lives to Recover Deck on Person of Fallen Comrade.

Captain McWilliams of the Canadian forces, told an after dinner story the other night to illustrate how large amusement looms in the life of a soldier in the trenches.

A game of bridge was in progress just below the firing step in a front line trench, when the alarm was given to repulse a raid. Sergeant McBride snatched up his rifle with one hand and gathered the cards with the other, and in less than a minute every man in the trench was over the top.

Half an hour afterward, when it was all over, the captain was scrutinizing No Man's Land through the periscope, counting up the losses, when he thought he recognized the prostrate form of Sergeant McBride, and it instantly occurred to him that the only pack of cards in that section was in the sergeant's pocket.

Upon explaining the matter to his comrades, all of whom were bridge fiends, three of them at once volunteered to go out and recover that pack of cards, which they did. Men have received the Victoria cross for less hazardous exploits.

Food For the Liver

Have you ever thought of medicine as food—the same as meat or potatoes? Yet that is what it really is. "Sodium Bicarbonate" sounds rather threatening as a medicine, yet all housewives use baking soda in their cooking every day.

An eminent Specialist has said that every organ of the body has the power to take that nourishment which makes it grow and remain healthy. Thus there are certain herbs, fruits and plants which the liver shows a fondness for. They stimulate the liver just as food strengthens and stimulates the whole body. These we call liver medicines or liver tonics.

By investigation it has been found that several of these vegetable products, combined with Pepsin, form an admirable liver food. They have accordingly been prepared in pleasing, tasty form, and are sold under the name "333 Liver Tonic." They are powerful enough, but gentle in action, and are never habit forming. Many people have been delighted to learn that 333 Liver Tonic provides a safe and pleasant substitute for calomel, salts, castor oil and other drastic and disagreeable purgatives. Children take it with pleasure.

Dillehay Brothers and other good druggists sell 333 Liver Tonic in big fifty-cent packages. You will find it just what you need for constipation or sluggish liver. Try it on their guarantee of satisfaction or money refunded. Do not accept a substitute. All good drug stores are glad to sell and recommend 333 Liver Tonic.

LETTER SAID TO BE FROM CHRIST

A LETTER SAID TO BE FROM CHRIST PUBLISHED BY REQUEST OF READERS OF THIS PAPER.

"Whoever works on the Sabbath day shall be cursed. I command you to go to church and keep holy the Lord's day without any manner of work. You shall not idle or mispend your time in bedecking yourselves in superfluities of costly apparel and vain dressing, for I have ordered it a day of rest. I will have that day kept holy that your sins may be forgiven you. You will not break my commandments, but observe and keep them, they being written by my hand and spoken from my mouth. You shall not only go to church yourselves, but also your man servant and your maid servant. Observe my words and learn my commandments. You shall finish your work every Saturday at 6 o'clock in the afternoon, at which hour the preparations for the Sabbath begins. I advise you to fast five Fridays in the year beginning on Good Friday and continuing the five Fridays following, in remembrance of the five bloody wounds I received for you and mankind. You shall love one another and cause them that are not baptized to come to church and receive the holy sacrament—that is to say, baptism—and the supper of the Lord, and be made a member thereof, and in so doing I will give you long life and many blessings. Your land shall be replenished and bring forth abundance and I will comfort you in the greatest temptation, and surely he that do the contrary shall be cursed. I will also send hardness of heart on them, and especially on hardened and unpenitent unbelievers. He that hath given to the poor shall find it profitable.

Nelson Murdered Is Jury Finding

J. A. Tapscott, C. H. Roan, J. W. Edwards, J. H. Roden, jury.

Killed in Melee.

Evidence introduced at the coroner's inquiry tended to show that a number of men were engaged in a drunken melee Sunday afternoon, May 26, near the residence of Will Montgomery. During the row "Red" Nelson is said to have seriously cut Roan Humphries, and to have attacked Leldon Ward, son of the man under arrest. It is believed that Nelson was then shot and killed, perhaps with his own gun, and the body secreted in a clump of bushes near the Montgomery home until nightfall, when it was carried to the bluff and dumped over in the belief that it might not be found.

Three men were arrested, two of them being released today. The arrests were effected by the sheriff of Madison county. Ward and the men taken into custody had driven to the Whitesburg ferry and crossed over into Madison county. The man believed to have fired the fatal shot is yet at large.

SUFFRAGISTS IN WAR WORK

By MRS. JAMES LEES LAIDLAW, Vice Chairman New York State Woman Suffrage Party.

The New York State Woman Suffrage party, since it finished its great task of carrying New York state for woman suffrage, November 6, 1917, has devoted itself exclusively to war work and various forms of civic and patriotic service. We have recently sent the first woman's hospital unit abroad from the United States. This unit is the "War Baby" of the National Woman Suffrage Association, with which we are affiliated.

We have just held a great naval and military meet at Madison Square Garden, where a large sum was raised for this remarkable unit, which has sailed to do such valuable work in France. Every person in it, even to the plumbers and mechanics, are women, and they volunteered for dangerous service. Other branches of our war service have been an intensive food conservation campaign and the War-Savings Stamps campaign. In all this active patriotic work we feel inspired with the thought of our own chairman, Mrs. Norman deR. Whitehouse, abroad on an important government mission and many others of the rank and file of our women who are engaged in devoted service "over there."

Citizenship Schools.
Another interesting branch of our work is the great university extension of citizenship. Schools are being held throughout the state under our Educational Committee.

Another line of work is that of our Intelligence Committee, which lists officials of all political parties and all men in every township and county in the state who have run or are to run for office. It is believed this committee will become extremely intelligent as time goes on, and its intelligence will react on the civic welfare of the state most tellingly.

Our Americanization Committee has issued some very effective and educational literature and is organizing in every center and community where there are foreign groups.

Maintaining Morale.
We realize that a great part of a nation's war time efficiency is in keeping life normal and efficient at home. In the last analysis that nation which keeps most nearly steady and normal in its industrial and domestic life will maintain that morale which will win the war for it.

The work of the Rural Problems Committee perhaps is of particular interest in this publication which is being sent out by the National Security League. Very few people in the country have stopped to realize how in our body politic the rural committees are discriminated against in the matter of socializing forces. Our great cities have their amusements, their municipal halls and baths, their community kitchens, their public libraries and lecture courses and innumerable settlements and clubs where people are drawn together and stimulated mentally and spiritually. We feel that some of these advantages should be brought to the country districts.

Any rural woman who wants to be put in touch with our legislative bulletin, with our correspondence courses in civic education or any information in reference to the work of the Woman Suffrage party should write to that organization at 803 Fifth avenue, New York city.

Patriotic Family Give Their All

Mrs. W. E. Crawford, district chairman for the Red Cross; Henry Skeggs, in munition plant at Nashville; Major John Skeggs, of the U. S. engineers; Capt. Frank Skeggs with the army in France; Erskine Skeggs, in officers' training camp, is the record of the sons and daughters of Judge and Mrs. W. E. Skeggs. Every child in the service of their country, all taking a patriotic and active part and each filling a place of distinction. Comparatively few, indeed, are the families that have such a record in the battle against the Hun. Many have given their all, as have this honored judge and his good wife, but it is infrequent that one family is called upon to give so large a number to the country's defense.
